DEATH IN A BURNING BUILDING.

The Little Children Destroyed in a Tenement at Johnsons.

About six o'clock Friday morning fire broke out in a Cambria iron company's tenement, the first ward, Johnsons, Pa. The building was occupied by four families, among them that of Hiram Berkebile. In a few minutes the tenement, together with a single dwelling and one of the company's stables, were enveloped in flames and, notwithstanding the united efforts of the fire companies, were soon reduced to ashes. At the time of the fire Mrs. Berkebile and her five children were asleep. The husband was at work. The mother saved herself and baby by jumping from the upper portion. The two oldest children, a boy of thirteen and a girl of ten years, also succeeded in escaping, but during the excitement the other two children, little Willie and Sarah, aged respectively four and seven years, were overlooked until too late. When the debris was cleared away the bodies of the little ones were found in the cellar, burned into a crisp. All the furniture was destroyed. The stable was opened in time to save the live-stock, some forty-eight horses and mules. All the buildings belonged to the Cambria iron company. Their estimate of damages is $5,000; fully insured.

He also telegraphed to the following members requesting them to attend as the congressional escort the funeral of Representative Updegraff, of Ohio, which is to take place on Monday next: Messrs. McKinley, Townsend, Converse, McClure and Atherton, of Ohio; Mr. Caldwell, of Kentucky, and Messrs. Hayne and Miller, of Pennsylvania.

MEDICAL.

DR. W. BENSON'S REMEDIES.

From the Baltimore American.

MYSTERIOUS

Articles with High Sounding, Crack-Jaw Names are Not a Success.

A REFRESHING CHANGE.

To Plain English.

Every reader of newspapers has observed time and again, in the advertising columns, many singular and frequently unpronounceable names of medicinal remedies. The Greek and Latin languages especially have been drawn upon to furnish names by which patent medicines could be introduced to the public. The inference is, in many cases at least, that the proprietors depend more upon the attraction of high sounding titles than upon the essential merits of the remedies themselves.

It is refreshing once in a while to find a medicine advertised, whose simple intelligible name in English at once conveys to the reader an understanding of the uses and purposes of the remedy. A notable instance of this kind is found in the medicines of Dr. C. W. Benson, whose SKIN CURS and CHAMONIE PILLS impart to each their names, either their purpose or the ingredients that compose them. Dr. Benson's SKIN CURS is warranted to heal all diseases of the skin, such as tetter, humors, inflammation, milk crust, eczema, diseases of the hair and scalp, scrofula, ulcers, pimples and itching on all parts of the body. It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best toilet dressing in existence. Its popularity is attested by the immense sales of it which are taking place everywhere.

It is the only genuine "Skin Cure," and all should beware of the various remedies which have been struggling for existence, and now endeavor to ride into popularity by advertising themselves as "The Great Skin Cure." There is only one, and that is Dr. Benson's. Be sure and get it.
